

Income Financial Plus

Monthly Income and Capital Preservation

INZ.un

The investment focus of Income Financial PLUS is to provide steady, tax efficient monthly income and to return the original investment at termination of the fund in January 2008.

Income Financial Plus is backed by some of the top financial services companies in North America. The largest component of the financial services industry is the banking sector. Other sectors are the insurance companies, specialty finance, investment banking and brokerage, and investment management. The fund can also invest up to 50% in non-financials of the S&P 500 Index. Financial services companies are some of the best-capitalized and strongest companies in the world and have also traditionally outperformed the broader equity market.
